Nonprofit Organizations

Small Business Development Centers are authorized and funded to assist only for-profit businesses. Although we receive many inquiries from nonprofit organizations, we cannot provide technical assistance, unless the organization is considering a for-profit venture or subsidiary.

If you represent a nonprofit, and need help in incorporating, establishing or managing your organization, or in locating grant programs, the following agencies or web links may be helpful:

❑ The Foundation Center @ Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh
> 4400 Forbes Avenue
> Pittsburgh, PA 15213
> Phone: 412-622-6277
> Fax: 412-622-3136
> http://www.carnegielibrary.org/locations/foundationcenter/
> Assistance: Training programs on management, fund raising, and proposal writing; extensive library; links to resources.

❑ The Executive Service Corps
> Bayer Center for Non-profit Management
> Robert Morris University
> 425 6th Avenue
> Suite 2610 (26th Floor)
> Regional Enterprise Tower
> Pittsburgh, PA 15219-3014
> Phone: 412-397-6002
> http://www.rmu.edu/bcnm
> Assistance: A national program where retired and employed professionals can lend their private sector skills & expertise to help nonprofit organizations.

❑ The Duquesne University Economic & Community Development (ECD) Law Clinic
> Duquesne University
> Pittsburgh, PA 15282
> Phone: 412-396-4704
> Assistance: Law students who help prepare required Articles of Incorporation

❑ Community Technical Assistance Center
> 901 Western Avenue
> Pittsburgh, PA 15233
> Phone: 412-231-2822

> Assistance: Board/Committee Training and Development, Planning, Operations/Management Practices, Connecting with the Community