Launching of New Business

Founder, Dr. Alicia B. Harvey-Smith, nationally recognized educator, officially launched Sapientia One Global Solutions, LLC – a groundbreaking leadership training and development organization set to redefine professional and personal empowerment.

Sapientia One Global Solutions exists to empower individuals and businesses through strategic insights, training and development, innovative solutions, and unwavering integrity to achieve successful outcomes and growth.

By empowering individuals and organizations worldwide through strategic guidance, transformative leadership, and innovative solutions, clients can effectively navigate challenges with greater confidence and precision.

The Duquesne University SBDC was able to assist Dr. Harvey-Smith with the reviewing of their business plan and financial projections. Assisting them with the process of looking at applying for a Women-Owned Small Business certification, and helping Dr. Harvey-Smith with reimagining their business plan, looking at projections, and position Sapientia One Global Solutions with marketing expertise.

The Duquesne University SBDC is also working with Sapientia One Global Solutions to see how they can expand their reach within the local region, as well as internationally. Helping the client experience growth and understanding about how to successfully position their business is the overall goal of the SBDC.
